OVERVIEW

Our goal at eaternational is to connect users with new opportunities. Our inventory of world wide snacks may be small now, but we're planning to quickly expand our cpacity to meet our customers needs.

Our backend infrastructure aloows us to expand our inventory to any size and format. Our customer login will eventually allow us to track user favorites and shopping habits. Soon we plan on implementing a monthly snack box club that will ship curated and exciting snack medlies straight to customers doors for increased value. We're just getting started and we're hungry for more.

HOW DO?

Technologies Implimented:

HTML, CSS, JavaScript
Node.js, MySQL, jQuery
Insomnia,Heroku, Express

We split the workload into back and front end. Caroline and I took lead of either end respectively and Colt filled in the blanks helping to complete whatever tasks we needed.

Caroline went stone cold cutie all over the database, models, and controllers. I made enough handlebars to mustachio a hipster coffee shop and Colt filled out seed files like a boss.

It was challenging juggling to many moving parts and keeping paths and links going the right way, but we persevered and came out on the other side much better programmers.

THE IMPROVENING

Like I said before. We have alot of ideas on how to add features and scope to Eaternational. We're at the start of a long road. UI improvements are coming. database expansion is coming. New ideas are coming. Monthly boxes, mystery snack lotteries, brand specific features and more are all on the table.

We look forward to bringing an industry leading product experience that will delight users for years to come.
